Isaac Randolph Jefferson, a nephew and adopted son of the immortal Thomas Jefferson, died on the 6th of July last, at his residence in Todd county, Kentucky, in the 71st year of his age. The personal resemblance which he bore to the great author of the Declaration of Independence is said to have been astonishingly striking; nor was he deficient in those great mental and moral attributes which distinguished that illustrious statesman. He left a wife and several children to mourn his departure.

The London Morning Post (Palmerston's organ) accuses Archbishop Hughes in the accustomed British style in speaking of American affairs. The offense given by the Archbishop was, in intimating pretty plainly that the United States would have a settlement to make with England, and that the American Irish were just learning the art of war, and might in good time show the John Bulls a specimen of their accomplishments.

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPT [illegible] 1862

The Latest Eastern News

Harper's Ferry has been taken by the rebels with some six or eight thousand of our troops. This is bad. But we have news that far outbalances this disaster. Gen. McClellan's forces came up with the main rebel army, fought them, whipped them, took eight thousand prisoners, and were still pursuing them to their destruction. Our readers will find details in the dispatch.

While we do not expect that every battle will be a Union victory, we have the abiding conviction that the Union army will triumph and that every day this war is continued brings us nearer to the wiping out of that curse which has brought the existing terrible evils upon the country.

[illegible]

Branch Mint

From the reports of proceedings of the House, we learn that that body has not been disposed to favor memorializing Congress for the establishment of a Branch Mint at Portland. Whether this opposition comes from a sectional prejudice against this city, or from principles of general policy, we are not exactly prepared to say; but the indications perceptible from certain directions lead us to suspect that both feelings have operated upon the action of a majority of that body. To those who opposed the measure from sectional prejudices, we simply say, that we are sorry to see such early demonstrations of selfish action manifested by gentlemen of the Legislature who were chosen to represent the people of the State in a legislative capacity, upon the reasonable, desirable, and we may say justifiable supposition that their action would be governed by an honorable, high minded and universal desire to benefit not only their immediate constituents, but the whole State at large. We condemn this "dog in the manger" policy, and unhesitatingly proclaim those who act upon such policy as unfit for the responsible duties confided to them by the people, and as doing violence to the sacred obligations of legislators.

Upon principles of general policy we admit that slight objections may be urged to the asking of Congress for an appropriation sufficient to establish a Branch Mint at Portland at the present time. We fully appreciate the sad fact that our Government is seriously involved in a desperate struggle to maintain its existence, and that all the available means of the Government are needed to support this struggle, and aid in the suppression of the rebellion, still we cannot see that any special harm will come of the asking for such things as we actually need. We cannot believe it improper or unreasonable for the people of Oregon making known their wants to the Government, notwithstanding the fact that the Government may not be able to give us immediate relief, or grant our request. We do not know but that the Government may feel itself better able to grant us a favor than many of us appear to suppose, even at this time. We still have confidence in the capability of our Government to accomplish many things, and that favors will be liberally granted whenever the necessity is made plain.

We have presented the above thoughts upon the acknowledged supposition that the necessity for a Mint at this city is undenied by any one at all acquainted with the wants of the country. If we are not misinformed no part of the opposition to the memorial was predicated upon a belief that the Mint was not needed, but the opposition seemed to be based entirely upon the expediency of asking Congress for such a favor at this time and upon sectional grounds. We hope that the Legislature will yet reflect upon this subject, and give it that attention that its importance demands.

The Advertiser has come to the conclusion no longer to express its love for Lt. Halloran. It has made up its mind to desist lest it should injure him. It apprehends that the files of the Advertiser will be examined to ascertain the peculiar character of the Lieutenant's politics at the time he was acting as one of its publishers. Then [illegible] worse than [illegible] to [illegible] at Federal victories. That such a paper should be anxious that one of its late publishers should go into the army with this shout on his tongue, "[illegible] than treason to [illegible] at Federal [illegible]" is most extraordinary.

We hear that there is some explanation to be made in this case. Lieut. Halloran has sworn to be true to the Government of the United States, that he [illegible] the doctrines put forth in the Advertiser [illegible] and never will, and he no doubt will heartily rejoice that the political paper has [illegible] to the conclusion no longer to [illegible] him with lime from that treasonable sheet.

REBEL [illegible] STAMPS.—By recent captures of rebel mails it has been discovered that the Davisites have issued a new postage stamp. It is an imitation of the French postage stamp, containing a well executed head of Jeff Davis, printed in blue, in a similar manner to that of Louis Napoleon on the French stamps.

At noon the rebels appeared in force on Loudon Heights. Federals shelled them from [illegible] rebels promptly replying. The cannonading continued throughout the day and was resumed Monday, A. M., when the white flag was raised. The rebels continued firing three quarters of an hour afterward.

[illegible] cavalry escaped Sunday night, cutting their way through the enemy and arriving at Greencastle, Penn., with little loss. The balance of the troops, numbering from [illegible],000 to 8,000, with Gen. White in command [illegible] Martinsburg, surrendered Monday P. M.

One of Gen. Stuart's Aids was captured while on route to Boonsboro to announce the surrender to Gen. Lee. This was the first intimation the Federals had of it.

Gen. Franklin was within three hours march of Harper's Ferry, where it is said he had been ordered by Gen. McClellan to relieve the beleaguered garrison as soon as he received the dispatch from there that the place was in danger.

Intelligence from the front this morning, the 16th, is cheering, notwithstanding the bad news from Harper's Ferry. Monday morning McClellan with his reserves and fresh troops pursued the rebels with destructive vigor. The enemy took the road toward the river at Harper's Ferry and Shepardsville. McClellan following, shelling their rear guard. When they made a stand our troops would charge, driving them point to point in great haste.

The advantage gained yesterday is thought to be more important than at first supposed. On Sunday the South Carolina brigade was entirely cut up—either killed, wounded or taken prisoners. Howell Cobb was wounded and captured. Gen. Lee was wounded. Gen. Garland was killed.

Our troops, both old and new, behaved with great gallantry. We have captured 8,000 prisoners, with a loss of less than the usual proportion.

McClellan continued pushing them last evening and had sent to the rear for batteries.

The rebels are in a precarious condition.

LADD, WEBSTER & CO'S
FAMILY
SEWING MACHINES
ARE UNEQUALLED BY ANY FOR BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION AND IN Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order; should make a seam [illegible] alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton, thread, or silk, directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine, and back to thin, with rapidity, and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less, on both threads, and use [illegible] and with uniformity, and should never be liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer, stitch, fell, run and gather, and should be always ready to work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk above or below to correspond with any [illegible] cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the work, resuming the sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel-feed; no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw-driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side, or ravel.

The undersigned are General Agents for the general supervision of these unrivalled machines for Pacific States and Western Coast of Mexico.

DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA.

Is [illegible] extracts of healing gums, and vegetable oil and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any however delicate to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases; if they are not satisfied with its healing properties the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected and you will at once receive the proper relief and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound bathe it well with the Pain Panacea 5 or 6 times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally morning, noon and night. It will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhoea or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a [illegible] swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe toothache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time, it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected morning and night, at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked Breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea. It will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

Flax and its Products.

The progress of the machinery for cottonizing flax, anxiously inquired about by many of our readers, will soon be reported on by us in such a manner that will probably show conclusively that the value of the proposed improvement has not been overrated.

Distinguished gentlemen connected with the enterprise assure us that the thing is all the inventor claimed for it, and that the public will in a few weeks have an opportunity of witnessing the regular operation of some of the new flax dressing machines in or near this city, where visitors from all parts of the country can satisfy their curiosity by personal inspection.

We state this now, that farmers and others who are making calculations connected with the probabilities in this new business may understand that there is no failure (as we are assured) in any of the arrangements and that they need not abandon their plans for raising flax to meet the demands of the new plan for preparing the article for market.

Believing as we do about the project, we congratulate farmers and others in the West, and all through the Northern States, on the encouraging prospects for a new branch of business that will beneficially affect the agricultural, manufacturing, and other interests of the country.—New York World.

IRONING A TIDY.—VALUABLE HINT.—"Tidies," or the various articles for covering sofas, chairs, tables, dishes, &c., knit in open work (crotcheted) with coarse cotton thread or cord, are becoming very common, and most ladies know by experience the trouble of ironing them smoothly. The iron catches in the threads, and it is difficult to leave the meshes all in regular order.—We are indebted to Mrs. John E. Kocler, of Queens County, for a capital hint on this subject, which, having been put in practice at home, is highly approved. Instead of ironing the tidy, a broad board is provided, and covered over with common bleached muslin. The washed tidy, after starching, is spread out smoothly and regularly upon this, and the edges are fastened all around with pins stuck into the board. On drying it shrinks smooth, and appears far better than when ironed.—American Agriculturist.

ANT RIDDANCE.—We have made a very important and cheap discovery to keep ants from bees. Several years since the little red ants were very numerous in our cupboard, and we put stone coal against the end of the house opposite the cupboard, and it banished them all. We concluded it was the effect of the copperas in the coal. This spring the black ant began to annoy our bees, and we procured copperas out of the coal bank and put it around the bench legs, cleaned all the ants off of the bench, and there has not been one about the hives or bench since.—Bee Journal.

TO FRICASSEE CHICKENS.—Boil them forty minutes in water enough barely to cover them. Take off the scum as fast as it rises. Take them up and carve them in the usual way. Put part of the water in which they were boiled into a spider or stew-pan. For two chickens rub a piece of butter as large as an egg and a spoonful of flour together, and stir into the water as it boils up. Add some salt and a gill of cream or milk. Lay in the pieces of chicken, cover the pan close, and stew them gently eight or ten minutes. Parsely, cut fine, is a decided improvement.

FARM IMPROVEMENT.—In seeking to increase the fertility of the farm, two things must be borne in mind. One is, that the growth of some crops impoverishes the soil more than others; and secondly, that some crops make richer manure than others.—Thus, a crop of red clover does not impoverish the soil as much as a crop of timothy grass, while a ton of clover hay will make a manure worth half as much again as that made from a ton of timothy hay. The same is true of peas and beans. The manure from a given weight of these is worth double what it is from oats, barley, rye, or Indian corn.

VALUE OF HAY, COMPARED WITH OTHER MILK-PRODUCING SUBSTANCES.—Several French and German chemists estimate the relative value of several kinds of food, for milch cows, according to the following table:

That 100 pounds of good hay is worth 200 pounds of potatoes, 460 pounds of beet root without the leaves, 250 pounds of carrots, 80 pounds of clover, Spanish trefoil or vetches, 50 pounds of oil-cake or coza, 260 pounds of pea straw and vetches, 390 pounds of barley or oat straw, 400 pounds of rye or wheat straw, 25 pounds of peas, beans or vetch seed, 50 pounds of oats, and 400 pounds of green trefoil, Spanish trefoil or vetches.

Of all diseases, the first great cause
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted!

Sufferers [illegible] Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lung, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs, such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pimples on the Back and Head, Female Irregularities, and all improper discharges of both sexes. [illegible]

[illegible]

Self abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of California, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, [illegible] street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered their former health and impelled by gratitude, make known their cures and remedial agent and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperatively command their publicity, and we commend them to the attention of all afflicted.
